

Dear (Title: Representative/Senator/Mayor/etc.) (Name of Elected Official),

My name is (insert name) and I have been living in your constituency for (how long you have been living in his or her region for). (Write a little about yourself, such as where you go to school or where you work).

As someone who is deeply concerned about human rights, I am writing to you today about the human rights of Tamils in Sri Lanka. During the final phases of the Sri Lanka civil war, tens of thousands of ethnic Tamil civilians (a minority in the country) were instructed to gather into “No Fire Zones” by the government and were later fired upon. Numerous sources, such as the United Nations and the International Crisis Group, indicate that upwards of 70,000 Tamil civilians may have been killed.

I firmly believe it is in the best interest of the United States and the international community to recognize atrocities in an effort to prevent them in the future and bring justice to the victims.

Across the world, grassroots campaigns are underway to recognize atrocities committed against Tamils as war crimes or genocide. As a part of the aforementioned campaign, my goal is to meet with you or members of your office to discuss passing a resolution that recognizes crimes committed against Tamil civilians as genocide. Through grassroots advocacy, fellow advocates hope to gain recognition of the Tamil genocide at the national and, ultimately, the international level. By working with our elected officials to recognize injustice, we hope to make a safer, more equitable world for all its people.

Thank you for your time and I hope to work with you and your office on feasible solutions to bring awareness to such horrific atrocities.

Sincerely,

(Your Name)
